Region and area

- Situated on the island of Djerba, beside the southern coast of Tunisia and close to Houmt Souk.
- Houmt-Souk (market center) is the capital of the island and one of the most picturesque urban areas in Tunisia.
- In town, two of the most important places to visit are the Museum of Folklore and Popular Art, exhibiting traditional costumes and jewelry; and the historic fortress of Borj el-Kebir.
- Its 133 km shoreline abounds with sandy-white beaches, gently lapped by the warm-azure waters of the Mediterranean Sea.
- Facing the Resort, a fine sandy beach 1.8km long with a defined bathing area and equipped with deckchairs, parasols and showers.
- Transfer from Djerba-Zarzis airport to the Resort takes around 25 minutes (30kms).
