Pragelato commune: key site of the 2006 Turin Winter Olympics

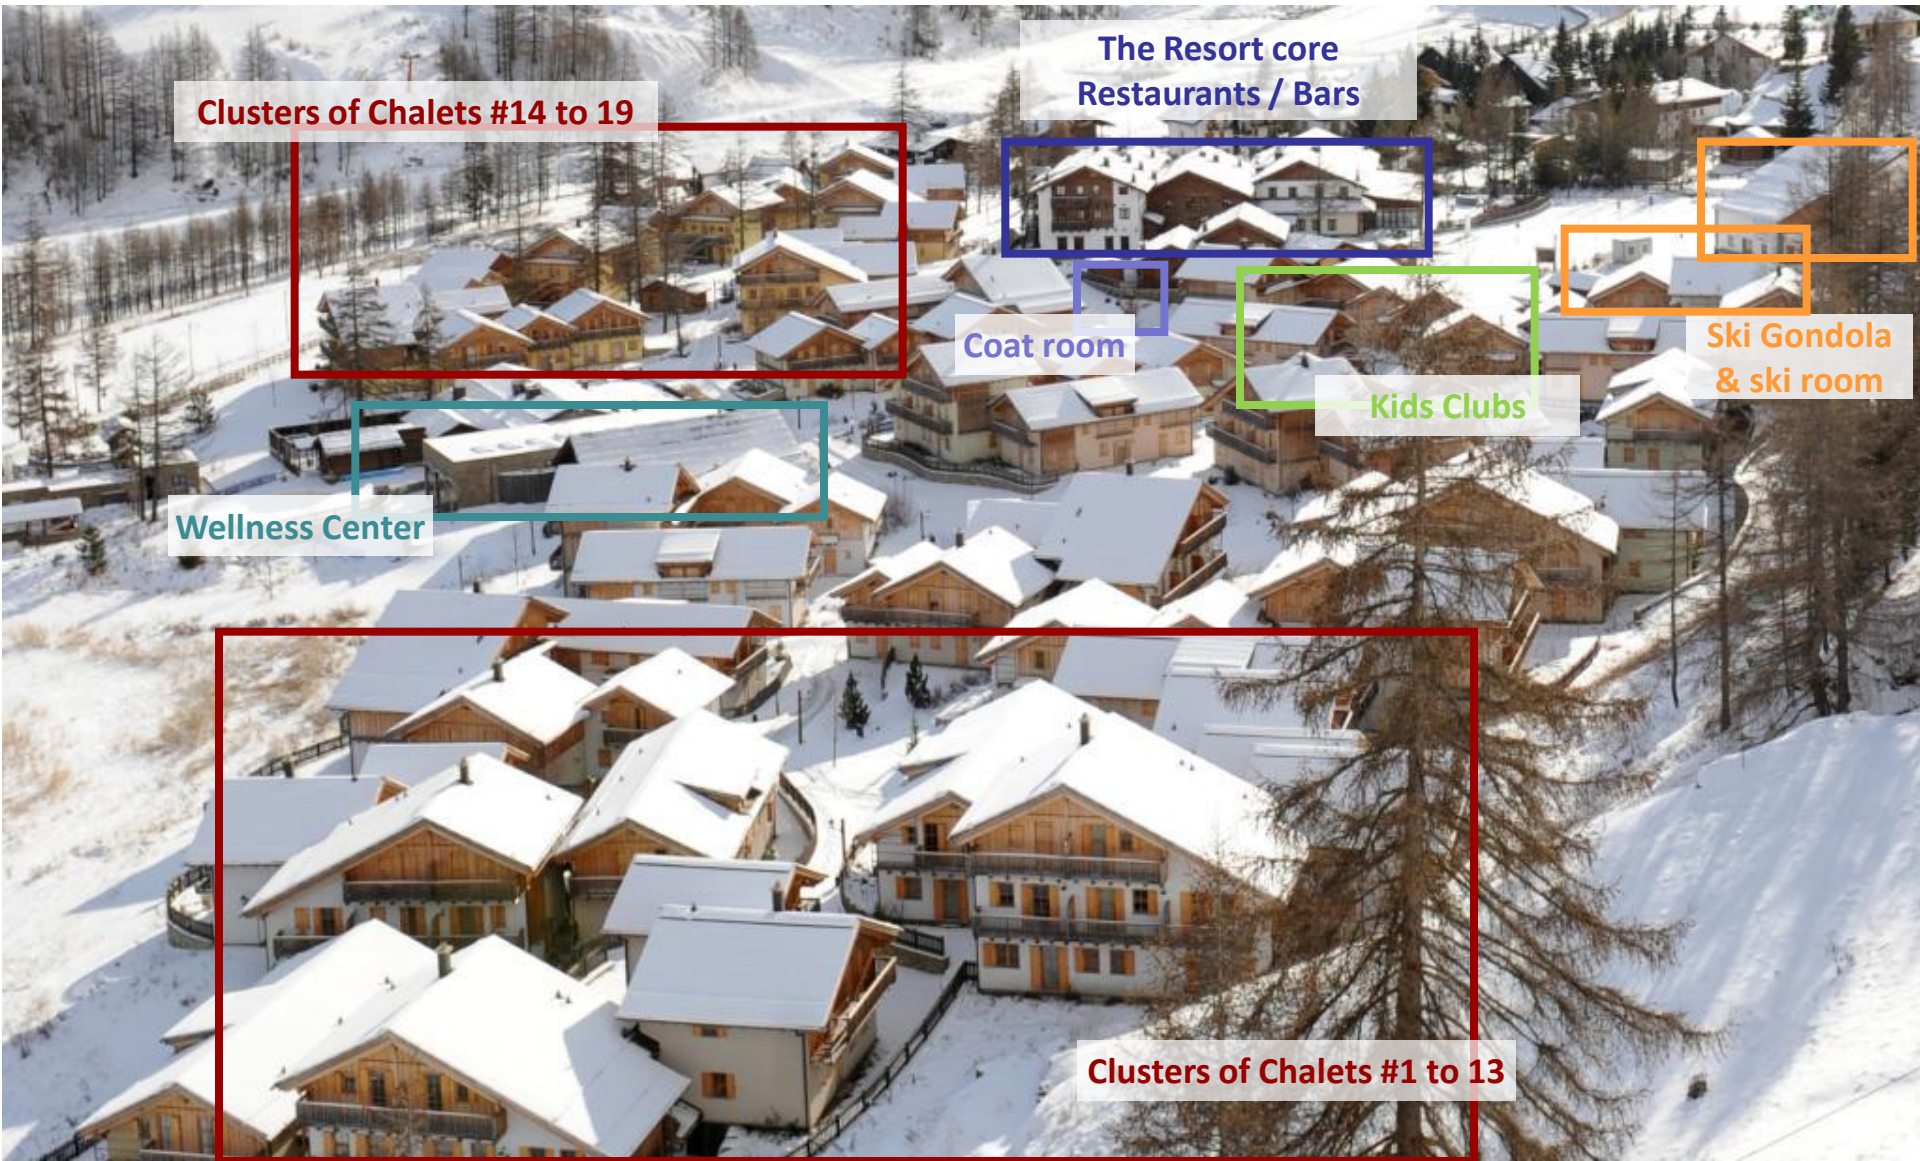

Pragelato, the ski-jumping ramps

Pragelato hosted the ski-jumping and cross-country skiing events of the Turin Winter Olympics, ensuring the Resort's fame and its abiding spirit.

Pragelato offers a unique mountain experience with the Chalet spirit. It is very easy to walk around and well organised with a coat room (underneath the core of the resort used mainly for evening time) which connects to the Mini Club and a separate ski room (for ski equipment near gondola).

Special attention paid to easy getting about in the Resort

- To go from the Resort Core and the clusters of chalets, the GM can use outdoor pathways that are lit by lamps and regularly cleared of snow:

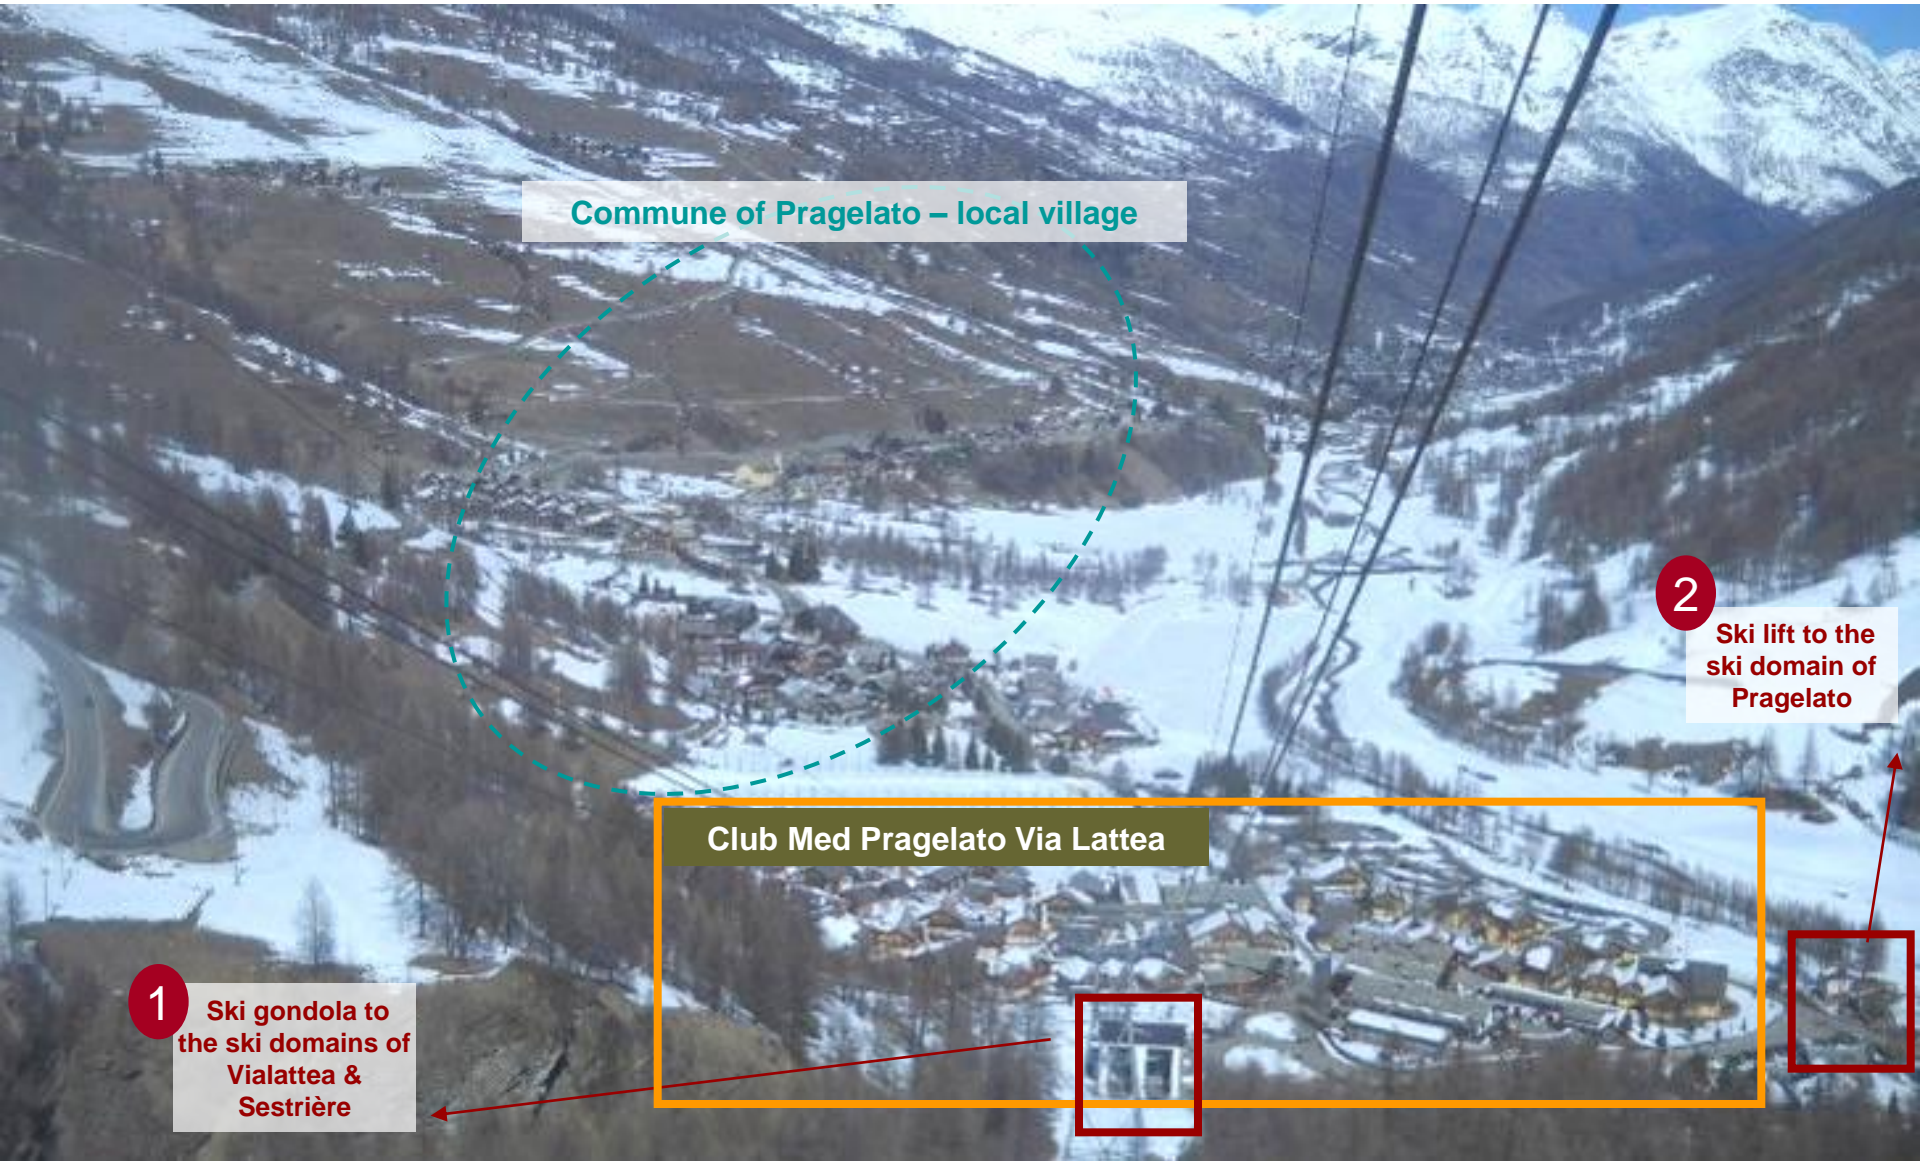

- ✓ On foot (5 min from the furthest cluster of chalets)
- ✓ By electric shuttle (regular halts at identified stops)

→ Key selling point

- Families with children will have priority access to accommodation near the public areas.
